Harrisville, Bitchie county, June 11th—By Hon. Geo. Loomis and John Bassel, Esq.

New Martinsville, Wetzel county, June 12th—By Hon. Benj. Wilson and H. B. Lutz, Esq.

St. George, Tucker county, June 18th—By John Bassel, Esq.

Grantville, Calhoun county, June 25th—By Hon. Benj. Wilson and Hon. E. M. Turner.

Glenview, Gilmer county, July 3d—By the same speakers.

Other announcements will be made from time to time.

There is a slight unpleasantness of feeling between Washington, Pa., and Waynesburg, on the ground that the former did not contribute unconditionally to the narrow gauge railroad now building. The Reporter of yesterday replies caustically to a taunt of the Waynesburg Republican in regard to niggardiness on the part of the Washington people, by remarking that they have spent large sums in the Hempfield and Chartiers roads, and that the building of these roads at so much expense to Washington county has insured to the benefit of Greene county, and made her present narrow gauge enterprise a necessity as well as a possibility.

There is for these remarks of the Reporter. The Greene county people have made a terrible amount of fuss over their narrow gauge project, and taken their time to do what they have done so far.

We referred some time ago to the fact that the Riverside Iron Works of this city had imported several car loads of tin direct from Liverpool to Wheeling at 11 cents freight per hundred pounds, a rate hardly more than half the present rate from Baltimore to Wheeling on the same class of goods.

The case is, it would seem, not an isolated one. Tin is being shipped through from Liverpool to Chicago for less than it is shipped to New York. Why this is so does not appear. It seems, however, that contracts of this character can be made in Europe, and we judge by some remarks in the New York Times that they are not confined to tin. That paper expresses the apprehension that the wholesale trade of New York is being thus threatened by interior cities. It shows that 100 tons of tin plates sent from Liverpool to New York would pay a freight cost of $500.02 in currency, while if sent from Liverpool through New York to Chicago, the freight cost would be only $326.89. In other words, the European steamship companies running vessels into New York transport one hundred tons of goods from Liverpool to Chicago for $273 less than it costs to bring the same goods to New York.

When it is remembered that the buyer of these one hundred tons of goods in New York must pay some $700 or $800 to have them railroaded from there to Chicago, it will be seen at once why his jobbing trade is threatened with annihilation. It is no wonder that a New York merchant complains that the "grass is beginning to grow in Cliff street" in that city. Cliff street is the great heavy hardware street of New York.

Our German Lutheran friends debated a curious question yesterday at their Synodical session in this city, viz: the scriptural relation of marriage with a deceased wife's sister. The arguments pro and con are given in our local report of proceedings. The report indicates that there is a decided opposition among some of the members to recognizing such marriages as scriptural. Those who are curious in this matter will take the trouble to read the report for themselves. The debate will be continued to-day.

The question thus raised is not new by any means. It comes up periodically in England, in Parliament, and was up not long ago, at which time a very strong effort was made to abolish the law forbidding marriage with a deceased wife's sister. But while the sentiment in favor of abolishing the law is the growing sentiment of England, and will finally prevail, it was, nevertheless, not strong enough this time to effect the desired change. There was the same law in Virginia when we were a part of that State, and such may still be the law, but it was always avoided by going into other States and performing the ceremony.

The debate yesterday shows how hard it is to make out satisfactory case from a scriptural standpoint against such marriages. Logic is logic, and no man can be convinced that a relative by marriage stands in the position of a relative by blood. Physically there is a world of difference, and it is only by assuming a doubtful construction of the Levitical degrees as defined by Moses that a theological case has been made out against marriage with a deceased wife's sister.

Without mixing ourselves up with the discussion now going on among our Lutheran friends on this subject, we would like to ask them what they do with the case of the woman who had seven husbands, especially with the record found in the 19th verse of the 12th chapter of Mark, reading as follows:

"Master, Moses wrote unto us, if a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife and raise up seed unto his brother."

If this should not meet with sufficient favor in the eyes of the brethren now in our midst, we would cite them to the book of Ruth, 1st chapter, 12th and 13th verses. The old original, way back in

Secretary Schurz to-day issued an order creating a board of inquiry into the management of the Indian Bureau. The board is to be composed of the Interior Department; J. D. Ferrell, Chief of Division, in the 2d Comptroller's office of the Treasury Department, and Amos Hadley, of the Interior Department, to examine into the methods now in force in the finance and accounting divisions of the Indian Bureau, especially as to the analysis of the money accounts of the agents, and whether the accounts of the agents are rendered in accordance with the law and regulations, whether expenditures are made without proper authority, and whether the present system is such as will show at all times the condition of the money and property affairs at each agency. The last quarterly reports of the agents are to be carefully scrutinized for the purpose above stated, and an examination will be made as to the number and compensation of the employees at each agency, and whether they are given or are allowed to purchase subsistence or clothing in violation of law. The board is also instructed to make an examination as to the character and total money value of special purchases for any agency during the present fiscal year, and whether such purchases have been properly accounted for. The board are not to be limited by the above instructions, but are to make such further investigation as may be deemed proper for the best interests of the service and are authorized to call upon any of the officers or employees of the Bureau, for such information and assistance as may be necessary. Certain charges affecting the integrity of the Chief Clerk of the Indian Office, having been filed recently, he requested an immediate and thorough investigation and Secretary Schurz has to-day appointed a board of inquiry. The board is directed to convene to-morrow with authority to subpoena any person taking and the admissibility of testimony as may be necessary to a full and complete investigation of all alleged misconduct or irregularities.

Great Storm in the West.

OMAHA, June 7.—A terrific wind and rain storm prevailed in this section last evening. It came from the south-west. The damage is extensive throughout the city and country, but particulars are not ascertainable. The Congregational church steeple this city was blown down. At the barracks it is reported the stables are blown down, trees uprooted and chimneys and porches demolished. The storm extended east into Iowa, doing considerable damage to the telegraph.

OMAHA, June 7.—The storm last evening blew down the Floral Hall and many other small buildings at the Fair grounds. At Florence a large hotel was unroofed. In the cemetery many of the finest monuments were thrown down and damaged. At Papillon, Nebraska, 9th southwest, many buildings were damaged. Among them the Episcopal church was unroofed.

NEW YORK.

What John Kelley Says.

New York, June 7.—John Kelley stated to a reporter that Peter B. Sweeney came back with the intention of standing a trial in the courts, but soon after arriving, having found that Tweed was negotiating a settlement of his suits on a basis of two million dollars, he (Sweeney) set his political friends to work and accomplished his own release on a basis of $100,000; $150,000 in cash and the remainder in thirty days. Tweed's release will probably not long be delayed now.

WAR NOTES.

A Little Unpleasantness.

LONDON, June 7.—The Russian policy, looking to the reputation of Roumania as a gathering place for Poles and other turbulent characters, have deemed it necessary to take even more than the usually severe precautions for the safety of the Casar. As well as sending a host of secret police, they have demanded the unlimited right of arrest of all suspicious individuals in Roumania. The government refused to grant this, because it was in direct violation of both the Roumanian constitution and the Constitution of the country. Duke Nicholas manifested his displeasure at the refusal to grant the request of the Prime Minister Bratiano and M. Comollescu, Foreign Minister, when they went to meet him on the occasion of his last visit to Bucharest. The Roumanian government, though it has yet made no sign of yielding, will probably compromise by consenting to the right of arrest of all suspicious individuals in Roumania, which provides a permit to the exceptional measures desired by the Russians. In other respects matters do not appear to be going quite smoothly, the Russians complaining of the ill will and dilatoriness of the Roumanian authorities and the latter of the offensive and almost brutal behavior of the Russian officers.

FREE TO ALL BUT RUSSIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 7.—The Porte has taken measures to avoid any conflict in the Suez Canal. Navigation on the canal will be free to all vessels except Russia's.

REMOVED DEPART OF THE TURKS.

RAGUSA, June 7.—The Consul here have information that the Turks have been defeated in an engagement on the southern frontiers of Bulgaria, and are retreating in the vicinity of Daglan.

TURKISH ACCOUNT OF AFFAIRS IN ASIA.

LONDON, June 7.—The following is the latest account of the Turkish condition of affairs in Asia on the morning of June 6: Mukhar Pasha's headquarters, with 9 battalions, was at Keoprekas. The Turkish right, consisting of 20 battalions, was at Delibaba. The Turkish left, 16 battalions, was at Gurdji, and their baggage about six hours' march from Erzerum. The same account only assigns 4 batteries of artillery to these 4 battalions, which seems incredible, though it has been repeatedly stated from various sources that the Turks in Asia were almost destitute of artillery. This report places the Main body of the Russian right wing at Olti, with the advance guard at Noghali Dagh. The Russian left wing has suspended its forward movement.

A Russian detached column is approaching Van and has reached the bridge at Beidinahan, twenty miles from Van.

In the Turkish Chamber of Deputies yesterday, the Finance Minister demanded the creation of five million Turkish pounds. The Minister stated that the negotiations for the foreign loan had not had any result yet. The Chamber appointed a committee to examine the Minister's demand. It is proposed to rely on the internal resources of the country.

The Turkish Ambassador at Paris telegraphed to Constantinople, and received the following from Sayet Pasha: "It is not true that the situation of our army is precarious, nor that Kara is invested, nor that Maussa Pasha's cavalry was defeated."

NOTE.—[Yet the Turkish censor permitted these stories to be telegraphed to the London papers.]

An Olessa correspondent writes that there is no longer any fear there of a Turkish fleet. Confidence has been completely restored, and the Russian government refuses to acknowledge the blockade, and proposes to resume the running steamers between Olessa and Kherson and Olessa and Nicotaf.

An Alexandria correspondent gives the following: "The Russian plan of the Obelisk (Cleopatra's Needle) for London, has been completed, 18 inches of the apex are gone and the corners are somewhat damaged, but otherwise it is in a fair condition."

RENEWED HIER DISCLAIMER.

LONDON, June 7.—A semi-official telegram from St. Petersburg states that the Russian Ambassador to London, Berlin and Vienna on their return to their posts will be able to give assurances that Russia does not aim at the political transformation of the map of the East. Nothing is further from her intentions than to cause fresh European complications. Russia will oppose the entry of revolutionary insurrections into the war, and also endeavor, as in the case of Serbia, to prevent the participation of vassal and neighboring States.

DEFEAT OF MONTENEGGIANS.

A telegram from Serbia says that intelligence has been received here from a special source that the Montenegrins have been defeated in Duga pass with heavy loss.

Belgrade, June 7.—It is said that General Protich, who has just returned from a mission to Vienna, has given assurance that Serbia will observe strict neutrality in the hope that Austria and Russia will, when peace is declared, protect Serbian interests. Horrible Turkish outrages are reported, particularly from Novibazar. Old Servians are much excited.

BLOODY BATTLE.

LONDON, June 7.—A special from Ostrook shows that the fighting at Hristac was very sanguinary. The Montenegrin losses are reported at 600 killed and wounded. On Monday afternoon, 1,200 Turks were killed; 50 officers were reported to have been brought in.

A Vienna special says: It is stated that the houses of 150 Jewish families were pillaged by a mob at Dohani, in Roumania on Sunday. Eleven were killed, 24 wounded and 90,000 ducats stolen. The news is confirmed that the Christians in Thessaly pillaged the Monastery of Ragune and killed the monks.

FRANCE.

Political Prosecutions Going On.

PARIS, June 7.—Three Republican clubs have been closed by the authorities because of their unauthorized political meetings.

The Manager of the Egalite (newspaper) published at Marseilles, has been sentenced to one month's imprisonment and a fine of 3,000 francs.

Victorien Sardou, the dramatic writer, has been elected a member of the French Academy, defeating Duke Du Maine Pasquiere, by a vote of 19 to 17.

ORGANIZING FOR THE CONFLICT.

The Moniteur announces that a circular will be sent to the members of Universities calling on them to abstain from political discussions.

The Presidents of three sections of the Left had an important meeting to-day. The decisions arrived at show remarkable moderation. It was decided that M. Gambetta at the re-opening of the Chamber should make interpellation on the part of the Left, but that, contrary to the opinion of Gambetta himself, and M. Thiers, he should refrain from arraigning the act of McMahon, whose irresponsibility should be fully admitted. It was also decided that the address in reply to McMahon's letter should be moderate in form, though decided in substance, and that if overtures were to be made to the majority with a view to ministerial changes they should not be rejected without consideration. It was finally decided that the question of sanctioning the Budget should be left to the Budget Committee. A majority of the Left had expressed the opinion that nothing should be done to render dissolution inevitable. It was admitted that M. Fourton's ideas, relative to the Hawking licenses, rendered many of the circumstances Republican papers more lukewarm in their utterances and that to give to the Republic the appearance of indifference to McMahon would cause a loss of a number of votes.

ITALY.

A Golden Jubilee.

ROME, June 7.—The receipts of the Roman from the Pope's jubilee were six and a half million lire in gold, exclusive of valuable presents.

INCORRECT AS USUAL.

A statement published in the Vienna Deutsche Zeitung says, to-day, that an Italian corvette had come to grief in the Dardanelles by striking a torpedo is untrue.

THE POPE AND THE PILGRIMS.

ROME, June 7.—The Pope to-day received several deputations of Pilgrims, including the Corporation of New York. He praised the faith displayed by the Pilgrims in this skeptical age.

ROME, June 7.—The report that the Pope has conferred the Order of Pius Nono on President McMahon is denied.

PARIS, June 7.—A circular has been issued ordering the prosecution of persons circulating for signature addresses or petitions to certain factions of the Senate or Chamber of Deputies.

account of advanced age I am desirous of changing my residence, and therefore offer for sale my farm situated opposite the city of Wheeling, on the river bank, midway between Bridgeport and Martins Ferry, and immediately adjoining the village of Martinsville. The property consists of 60 acres of hill and table land and 15 of river bottom. In the hill there are two seams of coal, 8½ and 3½ feet thick, three deposits of limestone, an 18 foot vein of slate, and also a seam of sandstone, an 18 foot vein of sand, which altogether make a soil and an underlying bed of deposits of a rich and valuable character.

On the surface, the larger portion of which lies gently sloping to the east, and all under direct exposure to the sun, is a Vineyard of 36 acres, mostly sown in grapes, all in fine bearing condition, about seven years old, which has proven itself able to pay a handsome per cent to the cultivator.

The property, being adjoining above and below a railroad, and being in a very healthy and fertile soil, is valuable as an investment for capital seeking a safe purchase, and valuable to those who want a home, and a place to grow grapes, and who want a beautiful view of the river and mountains in the distance, the island and the whole scenery of the valley.

The terms of sale will be one-third cash, balance in two annual payments, the first interest on deferred payments. For further particulars inquire of RICHARD CHAFFORD, On the premises, or by mail at Bridgeport, Ohio.
